[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SCOTTSVILLE, Va., October 6.—An "Original Evening" was the title given to a most unique and delightful entertainment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scott, near Warren, on Tuesday.
Antony and Cleopatra, Iago and Othello, were the plays presented, which were one of the leading features of the evening, and were impersonated by Mrs. Scott, the hostess; Mr. W. S. Lumbey, Miss Marie Leary, of Richmond, and Miss Emily Lyons, of Richmond, respectively. The costumes for these characters were strikingly handsome. At the end of the play, which was brilliantly lighted with Japanese lanterns, a temporary partition had been built, and the guests were seated on the left and the house. Here supper was served to the guests as they arrived.

Mr. George Scott presided over a big lunch laid in the dining-room. Calamity was the theme of the evening. Theatrical performances and over the lawn during the entire evening. An orchestra of five pieces, in addition to the piano, furnished instrumental music, and the singing of Miss Conkey Gordon, of Richmond, and Miss Emily Lyons, of Richmond, respectively. The costumes for these characters were strikingly handsome. At the end of the play, which was brilliantly lighted with Japanese lanterns, a temporary partition had been built, and the guests were seated on the left and the house. Here supper was served to the guests as they arrived.
